EW & CAMPBELL

TUENDAY, JAN. 8, 1878.

"J. N.," the philosopher, sends us a postal from Zanesville announcing that he will address the people of Wheeling at the Court House to night in the interest of the great principles of Truth, to which he has so long been a martyr, at which time he will assume whatever of pressure remains outstanding among those who, by reason of their prejudices, still sit in darkness and cannot come within the effulgence of his burning intellect.

The Report of a Great Kniirond.

We referred a few days ago to the earnings of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad for the last four years, as showing a gradual let down in business in the way of earnings. We observe that the report of the New York Central road, the greatest road in the country, shows the same thing. For instanceduring the last year its earnings were $26,679,086 as compared with $28,046,588 in 1876, and $29,027,218 in 1875, and $31,650,387 in $29,027,218 in 1875, and $31,650,387 in 1874. The falling off has been very $29,027,218 in 1875, and $31,650,387 in 1874. The falling off has been very largely in freights and not in passenger transportation. In 1874 the passenger earnings were $7,497,357 and the freight earnings $20,348,725, whereas in 1877 they were, for passengers, $0,576,816, and for freights $16,424,317. Nevertheless the company has continued to pay 8 per cent dividends on its immense expenses in 1874 were $18,388,298, and in 1877 they were reduced to $14,946,162. The tonnage of the road did not fall off, but increased. It was the rates, owing to the excessive competition, that cut down the receipts. It carried 6,351,356 tons in 1877 as compared with 6,114,678 This was owing to the low rates and increased business done by canal this last OHIO POLITICS.

Columbus Letter in Regard to the Senatorial Fight. COLUMBUS, O., January 5. Elitors Intelligencer

A MOTLEY CROWD.

A MOTLEY CROWD.

Happening in this city yesterday, I soon found myself within the meshes of the Democratic Political Whirligig, everywhere in motion and embracing, in some shape, everybody and everything it could reach. All one had to do to see the machine in full operation was to select some position, if such were possible, where you would neither be tramped to death, amoked out with the fumes of burner stogies and ancient pipes, or drowned death, smoked out with the funes of burning stogies and ancient pipes, or drowned in slutees of dog leg tobacco juice; for, verity, a crowd of Democratic reformers, like the one now assembling in this city, is one of "great expectorations." Well, not being "one of the elect," I kept my hand on my pocketbook and longed for help to enjoy the scene. Never before, we venture, was there just such a crowd assembled in Columbus as now though its navements, the recention rooms of its hotels, its by-ways and hedges, its street corners and its saloons. "Red spirits and white, Blue spirits and gray."

Democrats to right of us and button hol-ing applicants to left of us, checky of-fice seekers, crying, "good lord anything" in front and all around us.

SQUABBLE FOR PLACE

terest—thinking, perhaps, he was, may be, the "dark horse" in the Senatorial be the "dark horse" in the Senatorial odoubt.

This evening, Saturday, a general cau-cus is to be held for the purpose of select-ing the minor officers and fixing a time for the Senatorial fight to open. From present appearances Neal, of Butler, will be Speaker, and Beach, of Knox, Sergeantbe Speaker, and Beach, of Knox, Sergeantat-Arms, with the chances in lavor of exRepresentative Brunner for Chief Clerk;
O'Myers, till last Thursday, correspondent of the Enquirer, seems to have the inside track for Chief Clerk of the Senate, while Dodd, of Toledo, in training by old Jim Steedman, which, in our judgment ought to defeat him, is being pressed by his champion for the position,
with the chances in favor of O'Myers—and a tight race. While the Senatorial guns keep up a constant "rumble and roar,"
yet, after all, the "noise and confusion"
come from the scramble for the minor positions and nothing will abate it till this contest is over.

whenever and Wherever
THE SENATORIAL STRUGGLE.
While the utmost courtesy seems upon the surface of the determined fight for Senator, still it is very apparent, the determination of each prominent candidate is to die game. There is now, what is alleged to be more than a suspicion that Morgan and Ewing, in the event of the probable defeat of either, will combine against Pendleton, not, however, till they have first measured lances with each other and fully satisfied themselves that their individual chances are hopeless.
Then, from all I can learn, Morgan and Ewing will join forces. This suspected coalitton brought Mr. Pendleton, I am told to the city, one day sooner than expected.
I was, however, told by a certain en thusiastic and prominent Pendleton man, hat "while the friends of the two former gentlemen had probably agreed to combine forces he was sure they could not de-liver the goods, and that Mr. Pendleton was sure of the nomination on the third ballot, if not before." We shall see. These deservedly celebrated and popular friends of the various candidates are working heroically for their men, each one regarding the cause of his chief surest of success.

GEN. EWING. I am assured Gen, Ewing would much rather be beaten by either of his com-petitors than by a "dark horse." Hence, as a matter of personal pride, I rather think we may reasonably look for com-binations. Each one claims the other is overestimating his strength and under-rating his opnoments.

overestimating his strength and uncer-rating his opponents.

The friends of each are in dead earn-eat and will probably "stuck" while there is a hope of success. Pendleton is at the "Neil" with elaborate suits of rooms and paraphernalia, and is groomed by Jno. G Thompson, Col. Lew. Harris, ex-Secreta-ry of State Bell, and Jim Steedman, who, by the way, claims to be for Hurd. Look out for old Jim and many others of lesser note.

GREENBACK BENTIMENT.

GREENBACK ENTIMENT.

If Ewing wins it will be solely of greenback ground. I find a very et thusiastic greenback sentiment ever where, and Tom is regarded as the berepresentative of that idea of the three.

The Republicans will generally, think, vote for the Hon. Mr. Scattering Strates Watthews and Gen! Griffeld will tons in 1877 as compared with 6,114,678 in 1874. The tonnage however, fell off as compared with 1876 about 450,000 tons.

This was owing to the low rates and in-ONE OF BELMONT'S REPRESENTATIVES.

An irreperable loss to the State and Belmont county particularly, was well nigh sustained last night. Friday is an unlucky day you know. One of Belmont's representatives in the Legislature came or was brought to the St. Charles and averred he couldn't find his boarding house. He had just arrived in the city with the most immense Saratoga carpet bag we ever saw, in hand, and he, like Yankee Doodle, evidently, "Couldn't see the town For so many houses."

And as oret lost. He was taken kindly

The Recent Fires at Moundsville

Moundsville, January 5, 1878.

I am home again from beyond the mountains, and I have scarcely had time to find out whether everything is the same here as it used to be or not, but as far as the snow is concerned it is about the same as it was at Keyser and everywhere else along the route between here and there. It seems a little strange though as to the depth of the snow at different places. Fifteen inches at Keyser, ten at Cranberry Summit, eight at Grafton, fourteen at Fairmont, twenty at Mannington, and at Fairmont, twenty at Mannington, an-ten at Moundsville. Now, these were th reports gathered from inquiries made a different stations, and if true, I leave it for Old Probs, to account for for I can-not do so. The merry jingle of the sleigh bells livens up the streets to night and I was just thinking that perhaps Poe was sitting listening to such sounds when he wrote "Hear the sledges with the bells,

in front and all around us.

\text{SQUABBLE FOR FLACE}.

Though the political cauldron has been boiling for a number of days, singular as it may seem, a considerable number of representatives have not yet arrived—probably absent to avoid imminent dangers of dismemberment to which their positions necessarily expose them.

The squabble for the various gifts of the Legislature, from the highest to the lowest, makes a very lively battle for position. One listens to hear the nine-inch Senatorial Parrot burl its echoes through the tobacco smoke bedizzened halls of the "Neil"—and then comes the rattling musketry clatter of the importunate candidates and their friends for Speaker, Clerk, Sergeant-at arms of the two houses, to be followed by the agonising petitions of the thousand and one tearful beggars for Legislative favor.

Soit goes every where, in doors and out, night and day.

A MAN FRON RELMONT.

I have just been introduced to a specimen brick—a former resident and odicer of Belmont county many years ago, but mow of—well it don't matter where. He's after an office anyhow. His name is Howe, and from all I can learn concerning him, he was voting the Democratic ticket when Bill Allen was born. I took great interest in him—worked in his interest in princy of the dark horse" in the Senatoria tablez. But, for the present, my friend stablez. L have not as yet learned how New Year's day was spent by the good people for political breath blown into their noatris by the first blasts of Bill Allen's fog horn. Some are even from Martio's Ferry, and young, tender and virtuous as spring chickens. There are at least, I am told, fully a hundred applicants for each position.

Presented

L have not as yet learned how New Year's day was spent by the good people do Moundaville, but understand that many good resolutions were taken, all of which I hope will be religiously kept during the entire year. Our public schools will open again on Monday, after a vacation of four weeks, occasioned by the prevalence of scarlet fever in our midst. It seems now, from what I hear, that the disease has about run its course and the excitement occasioned by the prevalence of scarlet fever in our midst. It seems now, from what I hear, that the disease has about run its course and the excitement occasioned by the prevalence of scarlet fever in our midst. I hear, that the disease has about run its course and the excitement occasioned by I hear, that the disease has about run its course and the excitement occasioned by it has subsided. I am sorry to hear of the severe illness of our venerable friend Thomas Wilson. His condition has been very critical for several days past, but he is at present reported better.

Although my visit across the mountains was very pleasant, I feel like exclaiming, this evening, with Carleion—

11 Cere's a beaven upon the crit.

"If there's a heaven upon the cirth,
A fallow knows it when
He's been away from home a week,
And then gais back again."

And then gais back ageln."

Pardon me for these hastily written lines, but your gentlemanly agent, Mr.
Sigafoose, ever active in the interests of your paper, insisted that a few lines at least must be sent for Monday's paper,
and if mistakes are made charge them to

Nehenek's Palmonie Syrup, Scu
Werd Tonic and Mandrake Pills.
These deservedly celebrated and popular medicines have effected a revolution in the healing art, and proved the fallacy of sevcral maxims which have for many years obstructed the progress of medical science.
The false supposition that "Consumption is inourable" deterred physicians from attempting to find remedies for that disease,
and patients afflicted with it reconciled themselves to death without making and effort to escape from a doom which they suppossed to be unavoidable. It is now proved,
however, that Consumption can be curred,
and that it has been cured in a very great number of cases (some of them apparently desperate ones) by Schenek's Palmonic Syrup alone; and in other cases by the same
medicine in connection with Schenek's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, one or both, according to the requirements of the case.

Dr. Schenek himself who enjoyed unin-

or both, according to the requirements of the case.

Dr. Schenck himself who enjoyed uninterrupted good health for more than fory years, was supposed at one time to be at the very gate of death, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless, and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforeasid medicines, and, since his recovery, many thousands similarly affected have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success.

Fall directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed.
